Commissions

If you would like a watercolour painted to your own size, colours or subject, please contact me for a price and to discuss ideas. There is still time to paint something for Christmas!

Workshops 2010

My courses combine demonstrations and practical work. They are for people with some watercolour experience and not complete beginners. The aim is to experiment, loosen up and develop exciting and expressive ways of working. We will use a variety of different washes, brushwork and texture making techniques. Workshops are based at Todenham Village Hall or my studio. Demonstrations will be in watercolour on paper and will usually be of flowers unless specified. The ideas and inspiration and mixed media workshops will stretch the boundaries of watercolour even further with mixed media, collage and some secret ingredients to get your creative juices flowing!

Todenham Village Hall

This attractive hall is in my home village of Todenham, near Moreton in Marsh, Gloucestershire. Refreshments and a two course lunch with wine are included. There will be a maximum of 13 people on each course. Fee: £100 each per day. 10am-4pm

Ann's Studio

The studio is next to my house at the address above. Coffee and tea are provided but lunch is not included as there is a pub immediately opposite. There will be a maximum of 6 people on each course. Fee £100 each per day 10am-4pm

Watercolour Masterclass

A programme of 4 workshops with homework to develop your personal skills

This is for students with experience of watercolour, who need a boost, want to improve their skills or begin to find a personal style. The emphasis will be on looser styles of work and experimentation. You will be given painting homework in order to practise on your own the lessons explored during the workshops. This work will be discussed in the following session. Topics may include: Technique, Colour, Style and Composition although the content and subjects covered may vary according to students' requirements.

The Masterclasses will be held at my studio and limited to 6 places. The fee of £530 each is for the whole 'term' of four consecutive days. There will not be a refund for any missed sessions. A non-refundable deposit of £190 is required with booking. The balance can be paid at the first session. Coffee and tea are provided but lunch is not included. There is a pub immediately opposite the studio or you can bring a packed lunch.

Dates for 2010 are as follows: Feb 26, Mar 26, Apr 23, Jun 25
